Chorus

May I see you?
May I touch you?
May I hold your hand?
May I kiss you?
May I caress you?
May I love you and make you more than just my friend?
Will you stay for one night, only, or for the rest of your life?
Will you remember me after I have passed on from this earthly life?
Will I live on through my lyrics, our music, and your love songs?

Verse 1

Until then, may I work, play, and live with only you?
May I call you every day and ask how do you do?
Is there even one small chance that you feel that way about me, too?
Are you the one for me?
Am I the one for you?
Will I write loving lyrics for and about you?
Will you sing love songs for and about me?
As I hold you close, tonight, let's pray that we'll never have an argument or fight
If we do, promise me this, you'll accept the roses that I send the very same night

Chorus

May I see you?
May I touch you?
May I hold your hand?
May I kiss you?
May I caress you?
May I love you and make you more than just my friend?
Will you stay for one night, only, or for the rest of your life?
Will you remember me after I have passed on from this earthly life?
Will I live on through my lyrics, our music, and your love songs?

Verse 2

Yes, I may? Yes, you will?
Our love is real? That's how you feel?
You promise you'll love me, forever faithful, until my time is through?
Do you believe in me like I believe in you?
Do you believe in love innocent and true?
Do you believe that the love we share will live on, eternally?
For you, I write, I believe, Amen, and for me, you sing, Amen. Amen.
I believe that we always were and are still meant to be, Amen.
Amen. Amen.

Bridge

This is our destiny, not our fate
In time, you will see how much you mean and meant to me
As heavenly as the future sounds, I love you in the here and now
Thank God for brining you to me
Ssshhh! Close your eyes, now, and sleep, rest, peacefully
Finally, my prayer has been answered
Stay, here, in my loving, warm embrace, forever after
Until you rise, again, about my love make no mistake, Amen.
Amen. Amen.

Verse 3

A new day, a new beginning, I am here, tonight, again
Sweet dreams, sweetheart, I promise you this is not the end
I promise that we will live, together, happily ever after
Before I fall asleep, I ask God to bless you, to always keep you safe
Sleep, now, for another day, is about to come to a quiet end
I'll still love you, forever, this pledge I will make to you, again and again
Until you rise, about my love make no mistake, Amen.
I pray that you will always have faith and believe in me, Amen.
May I love you and kiss you goodnight? Ssshhh, yes, you may! Amen. Amen.
