Chorus

Insights! Yellow is your color!

Security, jaundice-ridden, a noun that rhymes with sticks and is in the urban dictionary, a word that begins with the letter P, and is commonly used as a profanity to describe a male body part; Ssshhh!

Under-paid and over-worked

Frustrated with your small, a noun that rhymes with sticks, again, and is a plural word that begins with the letter D, an abbreviated form of the male name, Richard

Going nowhere with your lives

Sitting on chairs in dead-end jobs

Blowing sirens and body parts,

Even though it isn't an official function of that type of job; Ooppss!

A gang of internet fraudsters, a bunch of can do-no-wrongers

Blow-harders, hand-cuffed by your own, a compound noun, describing men who earn their livelihoods doing really dangerous and risky work at sea, a word that begins with the letter S

Leftovers, remnants, evidence

Proof there was a party that you set-up as a covert decoy late last night

Verse 1

Sticking it to you, what's hangin' boys? (no pun intended)

University dorm room spying, Peeping Toming coming in from the operating system back door? Peek-a-boo, I see you!!

You think that you're some Big Dicks

But, you're really just a bunch of hard-up Tracey's

Little girls trying hard while wishing your time away

Someday retirements for wanna-be, a plural word that rhymes with a farm animal that rolls in the mud, makes the sound, oink oink, and is a noun that begins with the letter P

You can't see past the end of the over-sized noses on your ugly faces

Verse 2

Never passed the medical or parking exams or the personality tests

You were, well you know what you were doing, with the kids in your own back seats; Sshhh, their mothers and fathers might be listening!

The door is open, but you're still hiding in someone else's dorm room closet!

Cars doors...??? Hughhhh!

No, not even close!

The boys in blue, a verb, a word that rhymes with luck and begins with the letter F 'em while playing your childish Charades, trying to make everyone feel like you do, blue (no pun intended)

Innocent law-abiding folks, of all ages, while the legal illegals are working online and offline

With their big blue noses shoved way up inside their own, a word that rhymes with farces and begins with the letter A, a noun frequently uttered Down East and also becomes a compound noun when used with the word hole, and is also used as an adjective to describe people Easterners don't like!

Bridge

Parents watch your children, closely!!
The IT University drop-outs and failures are on the loose!!

Good grief, mom and dad, wake up, and smell the bacon!!
They're, a word that rhymes with ducking and begins with the letter F, anything in or out on the street!!

The vehicle they use in their extracurricular activities or maybe they're just little juvenile misdemeanors
The employer-supplied cruisers (no pun intended)

And this, folks, is how your tax-paying dollars are really being spent
No pun intended, again, Dick Tracey's paid to protect your kids, playing with themselves, instead

Yanking chains all over the place
'Cause there's no such thing as an Officer with a Big Gun!

These dudes only come, fully, equipped, like I said before, with Big noses, Big guts, and, optionally, with Big feet; does anyone want some (no pun intended)?

Verse 3

Petting? You bet (or bettcha)!! They're Animals, Animals!!

Crawling down in pants, trying to make music, not love, a word that is a form of and rhymes with texting, a three-letter word that begins with the letter S...!

Give 'em a note or two

They're always, so they say, singing on the beat

Their come on?

Pretending to be celebrities, cum on, who do you wanna be?

So they can, a word that rhymes with truck and a two year old boy may mistakenly say this word instead of truck when learning to talk, a word that begins with the letter F, your kids under cover in the dark

Or on a cell phone, while playing with the patrons of the kiddy playground, in your very own local Municipal Park!

Insights! Just the open source policy at your local publicly serviced school(s)!

Surprise! Your neighborhood online and offline networks are open source, a word that rhymes with ducking and begins with the letter F, public-serviced zoos!
