Verse 1

The first time I met you, knew you were the one for me.
Injured, in pain, you checked me out, offered help and company.

So, baby, now, why can't you see?
I love you, my Florence Nightingale you nursed me back to health.

You made me feel like a million bucks,
Much more than any amount of wealth.

Chorus

I've watched the way he treats you, you gonna give up this struggle and this strife?
Why can't you see he's no good for you, he's hurting you, baby, no way, it just ain't right.

Got my sights set on you, baby girl, so what do you say?
Am I the one you're looking for, your Prince Charming who'll kiss and wake you up, saving the day?

Your Knight in shining armour, I wanna make things right.
Wait'in for you all this time, are you ready, now, to stop his senseless fight?

Verse 2

I love and want you with me, to care for and to cherish, it's all I have to offer, but promise it for life.
Baby I'm right, here, beside you, open your eyes, and you'll see, you and I together forever, yeah, it's our destiny.

Graduated high school our parents with hopes and dreams for a future oh so bright, a pot of gold at the end of the rainbow, off to college we were sent.

Away from home, he hurt you, time and time again, your caring heart he broke, your sensitive spirit, without empathy (or mercilessly), he spent.

Chorus

I've watched the way he treats you, you gonna give up this struggle and this strife?
Why can't you see he's no good for you, he's hurting you, baby, no way, it just ain't right.

Got my sights set on you, baby girl, so what do you say?
Am I the one you're looking for, your Prince Charming who'll kiss and wake you up, saving the day?

Your Knight in shining armour, I wanna make things right.
Wait'in for you all this time, are you ready, now, to stop his senseless fight?

Verse 3

It hurts inside to see you sad, helpless as you were, not able to stand your ground, downright made me mad, the way he treated you.

Baby, I too was heart-broken, watching his abusive ways, his heartless and controlling nature, more than made me blue.

Tried my best to be your friend, but my efforts were all in vein.
You couldn't hear what I was saying, I couldn't stand to see your pain, enduring all that cruelty, baby, I nearly went insane.

Chorus

I've watched the way he treats you, you gonna give up this struggle and this strife?
Why can't you see he's no good for you, he's hurting you, baby, no way, it just ain't right.

Got my sights set on you, baby girl, so what do you say?
Am I the one you're looking for, your Prince Charming who'll kiss and wake you up, saving the day?

Your Knight in shining armour, I wanna make things right.
Wait'in for you all this time, are you ready, now, to stop his senseless fight?

Verse 4

Your heart wanted him at any cost, but you paid, far too, a hefty price.
Heart-broken I saw you fade away, wither like a dying rose, wilting as if frozen, yet, preserved, motionless, in place.

The love I felt back then, still living proof today, it continues to blossom and to grow, baby, I intend to stay.
Love, nurturing and sustaining me so I could revive your faintly beating heart, now, open your eyes, see me, and leave him in the dark.

Bridge

The path on your healing journey has been a long and winding road, looking back, a bumpy rite of passage, inflicted by a soul, dead and gone.

Looking out upon the horizon, smoother sailing lies ahead, as we approach career, marriage, home and family, let's anchor in these living things instead.

The wedding vow that we make, today, to love, honour, and be faithful, this pledge to you I will keep, always, in sickness and in health.

Now that we're becoming husband and wife, I'm the happiest man in the world, inviting our family and friends to share in real magnificence and wealth.

Chorus

I've watched the way he treats you, you gonna give up this struggle and this strife?
Why can't you see he's no good for you, he's hurting you, baby, no way, it just ain't right.

Got my sights set on you, baby girl, so what do you say?
Am I the one you're looking for, your Prince Charming who'll kiss and wake you up, saving the day?

Your Knight in shining armour, I wanna make things right.
Wait'in for you all this time, are you ready, now, to stop his senseless fight?

Verse 5

On this our wedding day, past struggles, on the shore where we've anchored, are buried in the sands of time, ancient history in the making.
Calmer winds, full moon rising, and tides of change are all yours and mine for the taking.

With promises to never be parted, our love will live on forever, true and strong, our words will resonate, long after we have gone.

Baby you were heaven sent, an angel of mercy in my eyes, can you see that I'm the one for you, now, that you've opened your eyes?

Chorus

I've watched the way he treats you, you gonna give up this struggle and this strife?
Why can't you see he's no good for you, he's hurting you, baby, no way, it just ain't right.

Got my sights set on you, baby girl, so what do you say?
Am I the one you're looking for, your Prince Charming who'll kiss and wake you up, saving the day?

Your Knight in shining armour, I wanna make things right.
Wait'in for you all this time, are you ready, now, to stop his senseless fight?
