Verse 1

Pinch me, wake me up.
You're a dream come true!

Blushing! Come on, you know you like this, too.
May I have a dance or two with you?

Hear the rhythm of the music?
Drums pounding to the beat of my heart

Coming on to you? What? Certainly not!
Baby, is there anything that you can't do?

I think this could be love for me, how about you?
It might, if you promise to be true to me, too!

Chorus

Chat me up.
Come on over and talk to me.

Baby, you can tell me just about anything, 'cause
I'm not really listening, I'm daydreaming.

There you are, handsome!
Will you glance this way?

Don't want you to know.
I'm thinking about you and me, maybe, someday, maybe going all the way.

Verse 2

You want to walk me home?
No, you can't come in, baby, 'cause I don't live alone.

Tell me more, you've got my ear.
I'm listening, now, that you have gotten me safely, here.

You play baseball? You're the clean-up batter!
Highest homerun average, well now, that's interesting, but it, really, doesn't matter.

Why so serious? Relax? Let my hair down and cut you some loose?
Baby, take me out on the town 'cause I just want to dance with you!

Bridge

Come on, let's have some fun!
Let's sing and dance while we're still young!

Come on, let's have some fun!
Let's play ball and I'll hit a home run!

Come on, let's have some fun!
Let's sing and dance and go out on the town!

Come on, let's have some fun!
Let's get down, and then can we get some?

Chorus

Chat me up.
Come on over and talk to me.

Baby, you can tell me just about anything, 'cause
I'm not really listening, you know, I'm daydreaming.

There you are, handsome!
Will you glance this way?

Don't want you to know.
I'm thinking about you and me, maybe, someday, maybe going all the way.
