Chorus (Male and Female Vocalists - Duet)

It's funny you know when I think about love
It's you I want to know
And what I know for sure is that you're the one I love
And this is what I want you to know
But, do you love me, too?
I believe that you, really, do
Now, that I know that this is true
Also, know, darling, that I'm in love with you

Verse 1 Verse 1 (Male Vocalist – Solo)

Sitting here with you
Watching you do the things you do
The simplest of things, you know
Make me fall in love with you
Like the way you sit when you put lipstick on
Like the way you do it like there's nothing else going on
Like the way you know, exactly, what it is that you do to me
Foreplay with you, yeah, you know that I can see

Bridge 1 (Female Vocalist – Solo)

Baby, put your shirt back on
Reflections, I can see
Baby, I swear, there's nothing going on
Baby, put your shirt back on
Reflections, I can see
Baby, I swear, there's nothing going on
Reflections in the mirror, baby, I can see
There's, definitely, something going on

Verse 2 (Female Vocalist - Solo)

Sitting here with you
Watching you do the things you do
The simplest of things, you know
Make me fall in love with you
Like the way you sit when you're watching me put my lipstick on
Like the way you do it like there's nothing else going on
Like the way you know, exactly, what it is that you're doing to me
Foreplay with you, yeah, you know that I can see

Bridge 2 (Male Vocalist - Solo)

Baby, put your lipstick on
Reflections, I can see
Baby, I swear there's something going on
Baby, put your lipstick on
Reflections, I can see
Baby, I swear, there's something going on
Reflections in the mirror, I can see
There's, definitely, something going on

Bridge 3 (Spoken, not sung while the music softly plays in heightened anticipation of the final Chorus, which will be sung both the male and female artist together in harmony)

Baby, okay, I'll put my lipstick on (Female Vocalist - Solo)
Baby, okay, I won't put my shirt back on (Male Vocalist - Solo)
