Chorus

The sign it read, Today's Special
My anticipation peaked

Would the item I want and need
Finally, be mine for keeps?

Storekeeper can you tell me
Where may I find the special of the day, that item your sign says is in here, waiting just for me?

Sorry, there's nothing on special, here
Sadly, madam, there's no special today, tomorrow, or the day thereafter, no, not in here

Verse 1

Then, why does the sign say so, it's right over there?
Why would you have a sign saying, Today's Special, if there was nothing special for me, in here

Hanging next to the very thing my heart has been wanting for all of these years
When you have nothing on special, no special offers, nothing over there

No, not over there, there's nothing on special to offer
No special, today, tomorrow, nor the day thereafter, no specials, not here

Oh dear! It's, exactly, as I feared!
Nothing special for me, no, not there, not here!

Chorus

The sign it read, Today's Special
My anticipation peaked

Would the item I want and need
Finally, be mine for keeps?

Storekeeper can you tell me
Where may I find the special of the day, that item your sign says is in here, waiting just for me?

Sorry, there's nothing on special, here
Sadly, madam, there's no special today, tomorrow, or the day thereafter, no, not in here

Verse 2

Apologies for the confusion
Is there anything else you want and need?

Is there anything that I can help you with?
Anything I can offer you to appease?

Sorry, for any inconvenience the sign may have caused you
Just let me know, and I'll try, somehow, to make it up to you!

Bridge 1

Nothing for me, I'll be on my way
Just saw the sign in the window, as I was passing by, today

Was hoping there might be something special for me, somewhere, someday, sometime,
But, I can, now, see, there is nothing special, that item, over there, won't be mine, no, it's not the one for me

Pardon me, sir, it really was and is my honest mistake!

Chorus

The sign it read, Today's Special
My anticipation peaked

Would the item I want and need
Finally, be mine for keeps?

Storekeeper can you tell me
Where may I find the special of the day, that item your sign says is in here, waiting just for me?

Sorry, there's nothing on special, here
Sadly, madam, there's no special today, tomorrow, or the day thereafter, no, not in here

Bridge 2

Sorry, no specials, here, today
Just a mishap, you were window shopping thought you saw something special, and thought you saw it in this very place

Sorry, nothing on special, here, tomorrow or the day thereafter
Pardon me, madam, it really was and is my honest mistake!

Chorus

The sign it read, Today's Special
My anticipation peaked

Would the item I want and need
Finally, be mine for keeps?

Storekeeper can you tell me
Where may I find the special of the day, that item your sign says is in here, waiting just for me?

Sorry, there's nothing on special, here
Sadly, madam, there's no special today, tomorrow, or the day thereafter, no, not in here
